The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the inlaying sheets being inserted between said elastic sheets as stated in claim 6, lines 3 and 4 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim 6 is objected to because the drawings do not show the inlaying sheets inserted between said elastic sheets. Also, this limitation is not described in the written specification.

Claim 1 is objected to because "said lowercasing body" as stated in line 7 doesn't express the lower casing in two words as it was previously referred to in line 2.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "said lower casing body" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 6 recites the limitation "said engaged notch" in lines 2 and 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by the prior art of Fig. 1 and 2 and the portions of the written specification which refer to Fig. 1 and 2 (the admitted prior art).

The admitted prior art discloses a casing structure comprising an upper body and a lower body, the upper body has a pair of inlaying sheets (122A, B) and engaging edges (the edges adjacent to the screw holes for screws 13), the lower body has engaged edges (the edges with screw holes 115) and inlaid slots (slides 114).

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3781

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 3-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the admitted prior art in view of Magnuson.

The admitted prior art discloses the invention except for the upper casing wiring outlet and the wiring outlets being arc shaped. Magnuson teaches an upper casing opening 17 capable of allowing wiring to pass therethrough, the openings 17 are arc shaped with an inwardly contracted opening. It would have been obvious to modify add a further wiring outlet to the upper casing to provide wire access to the top of the casing and it would have been obvious to change the shape of the wiring notches to be arc shaped with a contracted opening to provide the needed resiliency that Magnuson teaches is advantageous.
